MALAGA

The All Year Round City for Everyone

One of New York Times' 53 Places to Go in 2008
NY Times, December 9, 2007

- History and culture
- Sea-food & Malaga wines
- Beaches, sea and sun
- Shoe shops, and more!

WALKING HIGHLIGHTS

- Europe's most favourable climate: mild sunny winters, and sea-breezes to moderate summer temperatures
- Unique 'one-armed' cathedral
- Roman theatre
- Moorish palace – the Alcazaba
- Moorish castle – the Gibralfaro (and woodland walk behind)
- Picasso museum; delightful Folklore and Costume Museum; (and many others!)
- Beaches – and miles of coastal promenade
- Chiringuitos (fish restaurants) – grilling sardines on wood fires beside the sea
- Tapas bars and restaurants around every corner: too many to list!
- Bustling food markets and magnificent shopping

Footsteps Guides
Taking the stress out of exploring a new city

£6.99

© Brian Jones 2008