Taking the stress out of exploring a new city

THIS FOOTSTEPS GUIDE IS ALL YOU NEED TO EXPLORE THE CITY OF MALAGA

- No map-reading required.
- Simple written directions – just follow the 'footsteps'.

PART 1: THE ROUTE ▸▸▸▸

- Takes you on a circular stroll through the most delightful parts of Malaga, linking together the city's many historical, religious and other attractions.
- Can be walked at a leisurely pace in four to five hours: but linger awhile at places on the way – and it may take you a lifetime.
- Alongside the Route text, in tinted boxes, you will find easy-to-read information about the places you pass.

AND WHEN YOU BREAK FOR A REST ....

PART 2: MALAGA: INTERESTING STUFF

- Presents fascinating information about Malaga and its past: stories of a shipwreck, of spies and conspiracies, of political assassination, of an English visitor's endowment of a hospital, of the grotesque burial of protestants in the years before 1831, and of the visits of English and American visitors a hundred years or more ago.
